

Higher Education Headlines

Nov. 15, 2013

More international students choosing Missouri for higher education, Nov. 14

Lee's Summit Innovation Campus could be model for nation, education leaders say,
Nov. 13

Meeting to focus on expanding Missouri training model, Nov. 13

MU, KU rank among best schools for veterans, Nov. 13

College billboards capture captive highway viewers, Nov. 10

Seven out of 10 Missouri school districts are adopting Common Core, Nov. 9

Three years in the making, MU nursing sees benefits of grant program, Nov. 8

DESE: Districts are rolling out new standards, Nov. 8

Project at SHS hopes to ease college process, Nov. 8

Rep. Steve Cookson receives MCCA Distinguished Legislator Award, Nov. 7

To compete globally, invest in education, Nov. 6

Senator receives community college award, Nov. 6

Should a teacher's race match a student's race, Nov. 5

Testing future teachers may pay off, Nov. 3

Professors turn to unions, Nov. 3

Seven colleges to receive grants to expand nursing education programs, Nov. 1

University of Missouri System president encourages higher ed, Oct. 31